Cannons Roar Once More

Once again the pungent tang of gunpowder hung upon the breeze and the roar of the cannon reverberated along the shore. Echoing down the corridors of history these shots reenacted the opening chapter of our American heritage. These were the shots that are believed to be the first naval engagement of the Revolution. Thousands were on the scene as the waters fronting Fort Phoenix became the "battleground" as the "Success" maneuvered and exchanged musket fire and cannon shot with the two British manned ships. Clouds of smoke signaled the hit of the British vessel "Falcon" and the victory for the "Success". It was May 14, 1775 when this event actually took place. Captain Nathaniel Pope and 25 men departed hastily from Kelley's Wharf and drifted into the outer harbor under cover of darkness and fog. In the actual encounter the "Falcon" was boarded and the ship became a prize and its crew captured. Thus, Lexington and Concord might have been the shot heard round the world but only 25 days later the Fairhaven sloop "Success" fired the shots heard round the oceans.

Fort Phoenix

The thousands of people who watched the re-enactment of the battle of Fort Phoenix were treated to a part of the living history of this very area brought to life in the most vivid and interesting way. Perhaps many did not realize how much this coast contributed to the effort that created this nation. Thanks to the effort of many Fairhaven people, Fort Phoenix has now taken its rightful place among the historic shrines of this country. We salute the Old Dartmouth Militia, the Fairhaven Historic District Commission and the Festival of Flags idea which sparked the original interest.

Nathaniel Pope Day literally was bright as the warm sun came on strong. The muster of the Colonial and British forces was held in front of the Millicent Library and extended to the front of the Nathaniel Pope house on Center Street. Chester A. Hathaway, town moderator, introduced the speakers who addressed the gathering from the steps of the house. Harry Lawrence Pope, Jr., great-great grandson of Nathaniel Pope, and Peter Thomas Nichols, his grandson, unveiled an historic marker on the Pope house. The events in-the command of Donald Bernard as they led the parade to the Fort. At various points in the parade, cannon were loaded and fired, muskets were loaded and fired as these colonial units showed their stuff in a most impressive display. The hundreds of spectators at the center ceremonies were swelled by the thousands who waited at the fort. The units drew into formation inside the fort embankments. Mr. Hathaway began the program with some background remarks. He singled out Ken Lavallee for recognition in his initial one-man effort to kindle a spirit of patriotism in the town with his "Festival of Flags". Ten Flags depicting the evolution of the United States emblem were raised along the perimeter of the fort and snapped in the stiff breeze. Joseph Theodore, author of the Flag Lighting at New Bedford City Hall, was given the honor of hoisting the 13-star Betsy Ross flag on the central flagpole. The start of the naval engagement was signaled by the firing of a brass cannon and was followed by the firing of two recently remounted coastal cannon which forms the armament of the Fort. During the battle, Donald Bernard, commander of the Fort Phoenix Garrison of the Fourth Old Dartmouth Militia, gave a running com-

APARTMENT COMPLEX
VARIANCE DENIED

A variance requested by Frank and Mary B. Sylvia of 22 North Street, Mattapoisett for a variance to allow construction of 5 apartment houses of 4 units each on land bisected by the Tub Mill Brook has been considered at length and denied by the Board of Appeals. The public hearing on the variance request was attended by many objectors who gave reasons such as wet land, damage to the character of the town, density, traffic, possible pollution, addition to the school population for their opposition. The Board delayed their decision on the matter in order that the pe-

'Fourposter' Comedy Highlight

Two very talented young performers, Sally Jones and Jeff Dunn, turned in excellent performances in Jan de Hartog's "The Fourposter" in a production at the Marion Art Center for the benefit of the American Field Service. The play, directed by Nancylee S. Gaucher, provided some very funny moments as well as some poignant truths. Jeff and Sally took the characters through a wide span of years in a subtle aging process. The play progressed from a nervous wedding night with some very deft bits of business to a bittersweet parting with the fourposter bed. Sally and Jeff did a superb job of maintining the changing mood of the play which covers all the many bases of a full life. "The Fourposter" is funny and sad in the way that life is, and certainly this performance did full justice to the author.

During the intermission, Silvina Pereyra, exchange student from Argentina who is living with the David McCormack family in Mattapoisett, spoke with theater patrons.

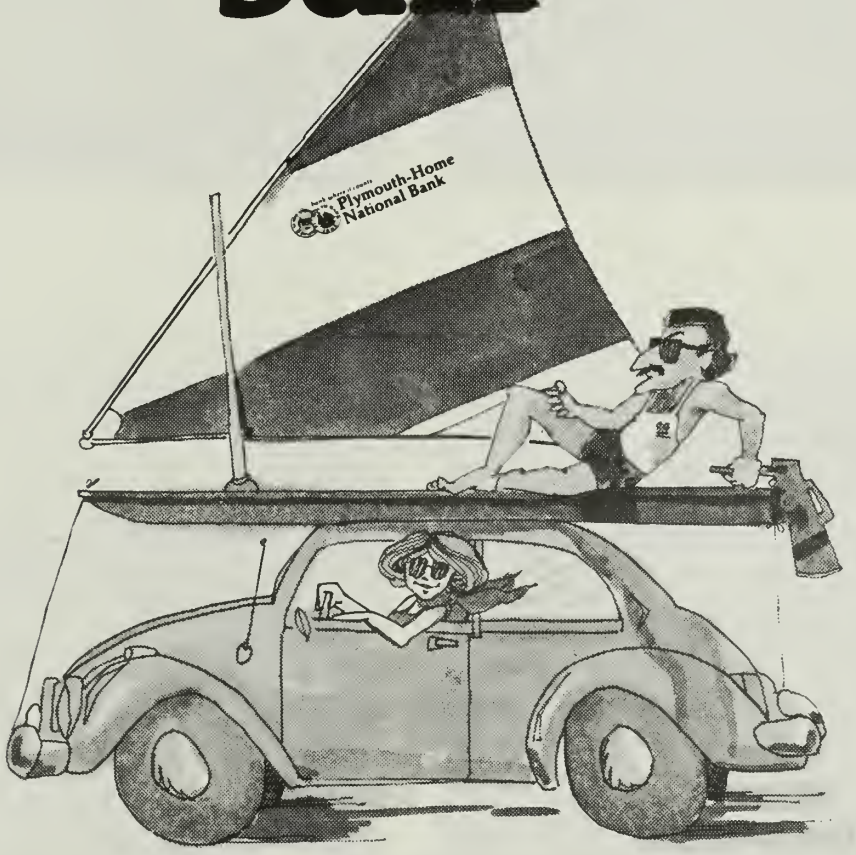
Auto loan sail



Your next car might come equipped with a boat.

Buy that newer car now, and we'll give you a shot at one of four "Sea Swinger" sailboats. These sleek little craft are easy to carry, almost maintenance free, and lots of fun to sail.

To be eligible to win one, simply come to either our Middleboro or Mattapoisett office between May 1 and July 27 and get yourself a car loan. Then just sit back and relax until June 30th, the date of our first drawing.

If your name isn't drawn the first time, don't give up the ship. You're still eligible for a second drawing on July 31st.

But no matter how it goes, you're a winner either way. Because with a Plymouth-Home National car loan you get "same day" service, free life insurance, and low rates. And if you charge your payments against a Plymouth-Home checking account, you get even lower rates.

So don't put it off any longer. Sail into Spring with a newer car—and maybe even a boat—with a car loan from Plymouth-Home National.

Art & Music Festival

OLD HAMMONDTOWN ARTS FESTIVAL

The public is cordially invited to attend a most gala affair on Thursday evening, May 31st, in the auditorium of Old Rochester Regional High School where the music and art departments of Old Hammondtown School will present their first arts festival.

For the past five years, Old Hammondtown has presented their annual spring concert in their own building with great success, but because they have attracted such large crowds, it was decided to hold it in a larger, more comfortable facility. The addition of the art displays and live crafts promises to swell the crowd even more.

During the festival, the audience will be treated to the concert band of nearly seventy pieces, the fifty voice glee club, a Dixieland jazz band, a clarinet quintet, a surprise number, plus a sixteen piece stage band.

The performance will begin at 7:30 P.M. with doors to open at 7:00 P.M. During this half hour before the music portion and during intermission, the art displays may be viewed and live demonstrations enjoyed.

A show of this magnitude from a comparatively small school certainly is deserving of a large audience and it is conceivable that the auditorium could be filled on this evening.

Your support is sincerely solicited at this time with the promise that you'll not be disappointed and thoroughly entertained. Admission, of course, as in the past, is absolutely free.

Sippican Seniors

Miss Grace Hopkins has returned from Florida and will continue the bead classes at the Marion Senior Citizens' Drop-In Center from 1:00 to 4:00 P.M. on May 15, 29, June 5 and 12. Please note that May 22 is omitted.

The Sippican Seniors will hold a Progressive Whist Party Wednesday, May 16, at the Congregational Community Center at 1:30 P.M. A small admission fee will be charged. If possible, bring something suitable for a prize.

The Marion Council on Aging will sponsor a trip to the Heritage Plantation in Sandwich on Monday, May 21. Buses will leave

Mrs. Nowak Honored

MARION RESIDENT TO RECEIVE
FREEDOMS FOUNDATION AWARD

Mrs. Kathryn Ellis Nowak of Marion will be presented with the Freedoms Foundation Award she won for her letter to the editor of the Standard-Times last May 6th, entitled Let the Silent Majority Be Heard. The award will be presented on Armed Forces Day at Hanscom Field, Bedford, Massachusetts, along with other Massachusetts winners during the Freedoms Festival award ceremony on May 19th.

Freedoms Foundation, Valley Forge, Pa., advised Mrs. Nowak that she was a winner last March, chosen by the National and School Awards Jury.

Each year awards are made on Washington's Birthday at Freedoms Foundation by an independent Awards Jury made up of 36 men and women, which include chief or associate justices from State Supreme Courts and national officers of national, patriotic and veterans' organizations and Service Clubs. The chairman this year was Dr. Carroll W. Biggs, executive committee, American Association of School Administrators.

Freedoms Foundation is a nonpartisan, nonpolitical and nonprofit organization. It encourages everyone to actively support the fundamental freedoms which are above partisanship through its educational and awards programs.

Mrs. Nowak's award winning letter stated in part: "By writing our President and Congressmen, we are supporting our own Government policy to protect our own servicemen and President Nixon's efforts for peace. Let the President hear from the Silent Majority." (This concerned the Vietnam War which was in its worst crisis at the time.)

Also, the very fine and efficient Policemen, Officer Donald Moran, Officer Wayne Viera and Det. Robert Moore of Mattapoisett's excellent Police Department, who donated their services that entire Sunday afternoon.

The assistant scoutmaster, Robert Marchino, of Troop 12 and scouts John Stellato, Billie Harris, Frank Wheeler and Frank Whitney who were in attendance also.

We thank the business concerns and friends from in and out of Mattapoisett who donated many prizes for the drawings, which was conducted by Father Raphael.

We thank everyone who donated the food and goodies which were served.

It was a great financial success for the Club and for the exhibitors. The hundreds of people who poured through the door were indeed delighted with the sight that met their eyes.

Very spectacular was the Snack Bar manned by our very own meat specialist, Karl Wagner, dressed in immaculate white outfit, grilling and serving the most luscious mouth-watering hot dogs of the same high grade as served in all Mattapoisett schools. He was ably assisted by Agnes Pelczar and her food committee.

It was amazing at the friendliness that communicated throughout, the congeniality of exhibitors, browsers, buyers, helpers and everyone.

Again, we thank you.

Letter to The Editor

The following excepts are from a letter to us by one of our subscribers. The parts quoted might be interesting to our readers especially residents of Rochester.

I am 84 years last December and give my thoughts so often to Mattapoisett, Marion and Rochester, especially those last two, Rochester and Marion, where I lived before and after I was married. My parents came from Nantucket and located in Rochester at the Swift Farm on Mary's Pond, that having been the half-way house and tavern (them days), 13 miles from New Bedford, 18 miles from Plymouth. The town of Rochester in my young days had 86 voters, only four being Democrats. Thus, if a new person moved there, when the votes were counted, everyone knew if he was a Democrat. (No women voters then).

In them days, everyone over fifty was, or had been on whaleships. My father had been on three three-year voyages around Cape Horn. So, when Captain Charles Church of the whaler Charles W. Morgan was about to sail to the Indian Ocean, he said to a couple of us boys (then about 15) "I'll take you boys with me. You'll see so much of the world and so much more money than you ever will in this dead little town." I went home wildly enthused and proclaimed loudly I'M GOING WHALING! Mother said, "no my boy you are not". I argued and talked, even wept, saying that Captain Church had told me, Captain Church had promised, Captain Church this, that and so on. At last Mother said, "look my boy, Captain Church will do all right, he is guaranteed a certain amount, even tho he never sees a whale. But, you my boy will be in a different world, on the same ship, bad food, bad water, vermin in the bunks, very hard work, loss of sleep and maybe nothing after 3 years. You must believe me. I was born on Nantucket when it was the world center of whaling (about 1876), and I married a sailor who made three trips around the Horn, three years each time, and nothing to show for it. Now, my boy you stay in this dead little town and keep both feet on the ground."

This is a long story of them days. Maybe you can make something of it.

To add to that. That summer I worked for Warren Mendall on his farm. An old fellow also worked there and had been on a voyage around the Horn. He walked with a decided limp, having, as he said, fallen from a cross tree when the foot rope broke. He fell about 15 ft., struck his knee on a ring bolt on a hatch cover and fractured the knee cap. No medical assistance, he must suffer it out. But, he said a good voyage, and his share was just over $300. and that with a mortgage he put into the little farm, and now said he had "good food, good water, a clean place to sleep, a good wife, and as your mother says, keep both feet on the ground."

Eight or ten old fellows, two or three ex-captains, gathered each eve at the Village Store of Andrew Fearing. There, sitting around the pot bellied stove on a bench and smoking, chewing tobacco and spitting into the sand box, they told stories and anecdotes of them days in their long life at sea. I can tell you lots that was told in them days.

ONE MINUTE PULMONARY FUNCTION TESTING

The Union Hospital of New Bedford is sponsoring a public service program at the North Dartmouth Mall May 30 and 31, from 1 to 5 and 7 to 9 P.M. in order to help the public become first, aware of the dangers of respiratory disease, and second, to participate in preventive measures against the incidence of respiratory disorders.
